1966 HI-LITES

The Hi - Lites

KELLY HIGH SCHOOL KELLY, KANSAS

VOLUME XVIII - MAY 1966

Foreword

After twelve years we say, "Goodby," to Kelly High School, its teachers and its students. We are ever grateful to our teachers for pointing the way to truth, to our parents for encouraging us in our academic efforts, and to God Who has given us all these good things. To all, we say, "Thank you."

But let us now look forward to our "birth" into the world. The school years have given us a beginning of knowledge. The world outside Kelly High School will give us experience. We need both. For only in knowledge and in the application of that knowledge does a man grow in learning. We believe we are ready for the coming years.

Dedication

Happiness is found both in activity and in contemplation. Father Vincent Wavada, O.S.B., a Benedictine who knows how to pray and work, has been with us for eight years as pastor of St. Bede's Parish.

The students of Kelly owe Father a debt of gratitude. During the years he has spent with us he has served the community in innumerable ways. Father Vincent has been the spiritual advisor for the students of Kelly Rural High and Grade Schools.

It is a great pleasure for us to be able to dedicate our yearbook to our energetic and beloved pastor.

Mrs. Raphaela Haverkamp and Mrs. Hilda Levert, our cooks, are responsible for those wonderful meals we enjoy every day.

Preparing to clean the school are: Mr. Francis Stallbaumer, custodian, and Lynn Enneking, his helper.

Senior Activities

Firm believers in "The way to a man's heart through his stomach," are members of home economics class: Mary Jane Niehues, Rose Ann Schultejans, Mariana Kohake, Joella Steinlage and Alice Hunninghake.

Turning head over heels for their class are the class officers: Gloria Huerter, Wayne Niehues, and Carol Rottinghaus.

"If I've told you once..." Leonard Holthaus says, trying to explain the fundamentals of mechanical drawing to Patty Niehues and to Carolyn Wessel, while Lucy Enneking listens intently to the instructions of Joe Hutfles.

"Nourishment for a fighting Spartan" says Betty Bowhay as she hands Jim Huerter a token for his sweat and energy.
